Dear Ms. Fisher:

It is my sincere pleasure to inform you that our awards committee had selected you as SBA's 2011 Massachusetts Minority Small Business Person of the Year.

You were then entered into our regional competition, in which you were selected as the winner of SBA's 2011 Region I Minority Small Business Person of the Year.

Your nomination package has now been submitted to our Central Office in Washington, where you will compete with the winners from the nine other regions for the national prize.

The 29th annual National MED Week activities are scheduled for September 27-30, 2011 at the Marriott Wardman Park Hotel in Washington, DC; so you may wish to keep those dates available. Stay tuned for more information on the national event and logistics.

Please also note that we will be honoring you and recognizing your accomplishments at the 6th annual Minority Enterprises Development Week Conference here in Massachusetts which will take place at UMass, Boston on September 23, 2011.

I join my entire staff in extending our congratulations to you for winning the above awards and wish you luck, as you compete for the national award. We are truly excited for you.

Sincerely,
